TRADITION BEATEN OFF.

James R. Keene's Great Colt Romps to Easy Victory.

The elation of James Rowe, trainer for James R. Keene, was equalled yesterday at Sheepshead Bay only by the depression of Sydney Faget when Sysonby, the son of Melton, romped home an easy winner of the rich Commonwealth Handicap, before Proper, Mabel Richardson, Tradition, Broomstick and Mousieur Beaucaire. Rowe was elated because Sysonby had beaten Tradition in the Commonwealth Handicap as far as a strong man could throw a club, and not only made her look reasonably foolish-which Mr. Rowe, of course, regretted-but gave her weight a; well as a beat-

The class of Sysonby and Tradition and the rivalry between James Rowe and Sydney Paget were really the most interesting features of yesterday's renewal of the Commonwealth. Months ago, when the snow was on the ground Mr. Paget assured Mr. Rowe that in Tradition he had the best three-year-old that stood on plates, regardless of sex. Rowe differed, and suggested mildly that with Sysonby, the son of Melton, he could run rings around the daughter of Goldfinch for fun or money. Mr. Paget chose the latter commodity, and ever since the challenges were exchanged each stable has bent every effort to get its respective representative in shape. Tradition, it is said, was withdrawn from the Tidal because in her condition then it was feared she was not quite on edge. Since that time she has proved beyond doubt that she has her speed with her, and her owner yesterday was quite content to meet Sysonby under the weight scheme of the Com-

Tradition took up 104 pounds and Sysonby 111. It is said that Mr. Paget hunted up Mr. Rowe in the paddock just before the race and offered to wager all kinds of real money that his mare could beat the colt. And it is not denied that Mr. Rowe turned his back on these proposi-

The makers of prices agreed with James Rowe, and offered to wager only even money that Sysonby would be beaten, while they offered 3 to 1, and in some cases higher, against Tradition. There were four other starters, including Mabel Richardson, which was added about the time Agile was withdrawn. But, as has been said, the interest centred around the two, with Broomstick thrown in to make it more interesting. The last named, in fact, closed practically on even terms with Tradition as second

With any other horse to contend with, Miller, who rode Tradition, might have been criticised for taking her up so fast in the second quarter, rather than biding his time. But the colt has shown that he has a way of going right on-he did the other day, when he ran one mile and a quarter in 2:05, and made all his own pace-and it may after all have been the wisest way. The only trouble was that in trying to go to the flying leader she broke her own heart first. Proper went on and chased Sysonby home, but had all he could do to beat Mabel Richardson, who came

In the opinion of many able critics this race makes Sysonby the best horse of the year, and it will take a faster one than has been shown yet to beat him.

In addition to the Commonwealth, the Coney Island Jockey Club offered its patrons the renewal of the Spring and a steeplechase over the

There was a great deal of small money wagered on Bill Phillips and also on Voorhees, but the Orsini colt carried most of the plungers'

Money.

After a race in which there was a lot of crowding Bill Phillips squeezed home in front of the favorite, with Voorhees third. The general impression was that Geo. C. Bennett was much the best of the race, and that, with proper handling, he would have won. As high as 8 to 1 was laid against Bill Phillips and his victory was halled by shouts of joy from the club-house and the reserved section of the grand

Even when he had caught him Phantom did not let go and hung on courageously to the end. Phantom is another Meddler, which Mr. Hitchcock is trying to convert into a 'chaser, and if he continues as good as he has shown in his last two ways it way take the best Hylas brows to bear races it may take the best Hylas knows to beat Sandhurst was in splendid form at his fences and only made a mistake at one of them, where he dragged slightly. Phantom also took his jumps right off his stride. The struggle was always between these two, although Duke of Connaught made a game effort to stay in front. He tired and had to be content with third place.

JOCKEY CLUB STEWARDS MEET.

Frank Bryan to Act as Judge at Narragansett Meeting.

A meeting of the stewards of the Jockey Club was held yesterday at Sheepshead Bay, those present being James R. Keene, J. H. Bradford, H. K. Knapp, Andrew Miller and F. R. Hitchcock.

The following officials were approved for the summer meeting at Brighton Beach: Steward, representing the Jockey Club, W. S. Vosburg; clerk of the scales, C. Cornehlson. The following officials were also approved for the Narragansett Breeders' Association meeting, July 17 to August 5: Steward, representing the Jockey Club, Henry J. Morris; judge, Frank Bryan; clerk of the course, John Boden; starters, J. J. Holtman and R. Dwyer; paddock and patrol judge, O. C. Farley.

The following licenses were granted: Jockeys-

W. Burton, J. Daly, W. Daly, W. Dugan, S. Fadden, C. F. Kuhne, William McIntyre, P. H. Mc-Govern, James Phillips and F. J. Reece. Trainers—M. J. Daly, P. Dunn, J. Fay, J. W. Fuller, H. H. Hyner, W. J. Mead and L. Smith.

PADDOCK PARAGRAPHS.

In Roseben, D. C. Johnson has one of the greatest sprinters of all time, judging by his races this year, He took up 140 pounds yesterday, and, over a track that was somewhat dead, as the times in the other races indicated, ran six furlongs in 1:13, only three-fifths of a second behind the track record. It was a sterling performance.

Nicol's ride on Geo. C. Bennett was in striking contrast to his effort on Sysonby. No less than three times was he shut off, and his finish, when he did find an opening, was wofully weak. Geo. C. Bennett had iodine marks on one of his front ankles, and it may be he was not quite himself.

Old England kept the field at the post in the se ond race for fully ten minutes by his usually crazy actions. It seems a pity that this horse should be allowed to continue in his evil ways, to the handicap of other starters. If he cannot be schooled to break properly his entry should be refused.

Pagan Bey brought grief to his followers in the steeplechase by failing to get over the first jump.

Broomstick ran yesterday as if there was some truth in the rumor that his wind was affected. It is hard to reconcile his race with his last two efforts.

R. T. Wilson, jr., at the sale of the Adelbert Stud yearlings at Sheepshead Bay yesterday paid $2,200 for the bay colt by imp. Albert—Persuader. Fred Burlew bought the full sister to Mesmerist and Hatasoo for $1,800. She is a chestnut filly by imp. Albert—Hoodoo.

ALEXANDER WINS TITLE.

HOBART'S 'HARD FIGHT.

Many Spirited Matches in Middle States Championship.

The ability to stand a long and gruelling five set lawn tennis match resulted in Frederick B. Alexander taking the singles championship and cup yesterday in the challenge contest of the Middle States tournament.

Alexander was cutplayed in the first and second set by the defending champion, Clarence Hobart. It was lawn tennis of the most rapid order, Hobart winning the points from Alexander at the latter's favorite method of volleying play. But two sets of this sort of work began to tell on Hobart, and he was compelled to slacken his pace. This gave Alexander his opportunity, and he took the third and fourth sets by comparatively easy scores. In the fifth and deciding set Hobart made a grand rally. He was three times within a point of taking the match and retaining his trophy. From his side of the net Alexander held him off, and finally won by the score of 2-6, 4-6, 6-4, 6-3, 8-6. While this was the feature competition of the day on the turf courts of the Orange Lawn Tennis Club, at Mountain Station, N. J., the finals and championship matches in three other contests were completed. Miss Carrie B. Neeley, of the Kenwood Country Club, of Chicago, defeated Miss Alice Day, Orange Lawn Tennis Club, in easy fashion in straight sets by the score 6-1, 6-2. As Miss May Sutton, the California girl, is in London, Miss Neeley took the women's championship title by default. In the men's championship doubles the Princeton-Yale combination, Frederick B. Alexander and Harold H. Hackett, also defeated their opponents in three sets by the score of 6-3, 6-8, 6-0. Clarence Hobart and A. Wadsworth were no match for the veteran collegians in this competition, and the winning pair took the championship title, as Robert D. Wrenn is in England. With his brother, George L. Wrenn, jr., the pair won the championship last year.

The championship match of the women's doubles yielded a fine contest, in which Miss Carrie B. Neeley and Mrs. Edwin Holden, captured the honors, defeating Mrs. Offerman and Miss Smith, of the Ladies' Club, of Staten Island, by the score of 6-4, 6-3. The summary follows:

Men's championship singles (challenge round)—Frederick B. Alexander, West Side Lawn Tennis Club, challenger, defected Clarence Hobart. Orange Lawn Tennis Club, defender, 2-6, 4-6, 6-4, 8-3, 8-6.
Men's championship doubles (final round)—Frederick B. Alexander and Harold H. Hackett, West Side Lawn Tennis Club, defeated Clarence Hobart and A. Wadsworth, Orange Lawn Tennis Club, 6-3, 6-8, 6-0.
Challenge round—Frederick B. Alexander and Harold H. Hackett, West Side Lawn Tennis Club, challenger, defeated Robert D. Wrchn and George L. Wrenn, fr. Country Club of Westchester, defenders, by default.
Women's championship singles (final round)—Misc Carrle B. Neeley, Kenwood Country Club of Chicago, defeated Miss Alice Day, Orange Lawn Tennis Club, 6-1, 6-2.

Holcombe Ward and Beals C. Wright won their match of the doubles by superior all round play. Their service was most effective. Larned straight sets.

Miss May Suiton, the American national champion last year, defeated Miss Thomson, the run-ner-up last year, in the women's championship. It was a bitter fight in the first set, and the score went to 6 all before the visiting player could win the necessary two games in successon to take the set. Miss Thomson, who is one of the strongest players in England, fell off badly in the second set, and Miss Sutton won easily by a score of 6-1. It looks now as if the women's championship of All-England would go back to America. The summary of the day's play in the matches in which the American play-Women's doubles championship (second round)—Miss Sutton and Miss Morton beat Miss Ripley and Mrs. Macauley, 8-0, 6-1.

The entire series of games for the Dwight F. Davis cup may be played at Wimbledon. The abandonment of the Queen's Club for the contest is now under consideration.

LEAGUE CHAMPIONSHIP GAMES.

the team of the New-York Athletic Club lost all three of their matches. This was a surprise to the players of the "Mercury Foot" organization, especially as the club had two of its most expert players in both the singles and doubles. Morris S. Clark, the Siwanoy captain, disposed of the champion of the New-York Athletic Club in straight sets. Mallery was not equal to checking the swift swoops which Clark made on the net, and, having once gained the position, he volleyed cleanly through Mallory's court for the points.

H. D. Montsomery played through three hard sets betore he defeated Samuel M. Cauldwell in the other singles match. Then Captain Clark and Arthur T. on both sides the Giants earned quick revenge and defeated Brooklyn at Washington Park yesterday by a score of 7 to 5. Wiltse, who pitched for the Glants, while being hit freely, fielded his position in clever style. The whole team, in fact, recovered its form and played a fast fielding In the second inning a foul tip struck Bowerman's mask in such a way as to cut a long gash and Clothier also won their match in doubles in in his forehead. With his customary grit, however, he continued to play. Jones, who started to pitch for the Superbas, was taken out of the box in the fourth inning, in which the Giants pounded the ball all over the field for five runs. Scanlon, who took his place, played a steady game, and kept the Giants from further scoring. The threatening weather evidently had its effect in keeping down the crowd, as only about twelve hundred persons attended. Hall's double and Lumley's triple gave the Superbas their first run in the opening inning.

In the second inning the Giants found Jones and got two men across the plate on a single by Mertes, Deviln's liner, which went through Babb's hands, Strang's bunt and Wiltse's single. In the fourth inning the Giants continued to hit the ball freely, and before the side was retired had the game safely in hand.

No Chance for Sunday Play Where Any Admission Fee Is Charged. In handing down a decision refusing to continue

Parkville Field Club, the Utica Baseball Club, the Paramounts and the Woodhaven Athletic Club, restraining the police from interfering with them in Supreme Court, Brooklyn, yesterday afternoon, said:

Supreme Court. Brooklyn, yesterday afternoon, said:

"I myself am in favor of baseball. Young men may play on Sunday afternoon if they go away to a place where they can enjoy themselves without disturbing the religious repose of others or annoying nearby residents. But my province as a judge is to pass upon the law. The law provides the conditions under which baseball may be played on Sunday, and those who play it or that day must submit to the law or be punished as violators of it, inat is the situation in a nutshell."

Justice Kelly repeated his opinion of last week in a similar proceeding, that all games where admission is charged and which have been advertised are illegal on Sunday. He left it to the police to decide whether the law was evaded by charging admission through the medium of compehing the spectators to buy score cards.

Conroy's high throw to the plate to catch Davis in the eleventh inning of the second game between the Highlanders and Philadelphia at American League Park yesterday was responsible for the home team losing its second game of a double header by a score of 3 to 2. The first game was another interesting struggle, which went to Philadelphia by a score of 1 to 0.

Each game was a pitchers' battle, with the honors in favor of the Philadelphia twirlers. The batting of Hoffman, of the visitors, and Elberfeld, of the local team, was the feature in the second game. Hofman went to the bat four times, and each time made a safe hit. Elberfeld made three hits in four times at bat. Chesbro and Coakley were the opposing pitchers in the first game. The latter pitched a pardifficulty. The rigging of Dunning's boat was ticularly strong game, allowing only four scat-tered hits and shutting out New-York. Chesbro-kept the seven hits made off his delivery well scattered also, with the exception of the third inning, when three singles gave the Quakers the only run scored in the game.

Waddell and Hogg were the pitchers in the second game, and the honors easily went to Waddell. He kept the Highlanders down to five Waddell. He kept the Highlanders down to five hits, and struck out ten men. The Highlanders made their only two runs in the second inning on Williams's and Chase's singles, Elberfeld's sacrifice, Fultz's bunt and an out.

Elberfeld's low throw, Cross's triple and Murphy's fly allowed Philadelphia to tie the score in the fourth inning. In the eleventh inning, with one out and the bases full, Davis scored on Conroy's high throw to head him off. The scores follow:

A SMALL FLEET STARTS.

Light Airs for New-Rochelle Yacht Club Annual Regatta.

In a light breeze from the southwest thirty-bur In a light breeze from the southern sailed in their respective classes yesterday on Long Island Sound in the annual regatta of the New-Rochelle Yacht Club. Nine of the New-York Yacht Club's one design 30-footers croused the starting line, and so close were they that two of themthe Phryne and the Alera-fouled each other, but with only slight damage. Adrian Iselin's raceabout Nora and A. Bryan Alley's Pretty Quick also fouled at the start and the former entered a protest. A. G. Hanan's Nautilius was the winner in this class.

It was as pretty a start as has been seen this season. Trenor L. Park's 33-foot sloop Mimosa III led the fleet, crossing the line off Echo Bay at 12:20. Like a flock of white winged gulls the New-York 30-footers came for the line with sheets eased to port and balloon jibs set. Newbury Lawton's Banzal was first away. She was followed in quick succession by the Alera, the Phryne, the Cara-Mia, the Maid of Mendon, the Nautilus, the Minx, the Dahinda and Neola II. The latter was really first across the line, but she crossed too soon and was recalled. To the first mark-Scotch Cap buoy-it was a reach for the yachts in the larger classes, also for the small ones to Parsonage Point buoy. From the first to the second mark the boats had some windward work, most of it on the starboard tack, and from there to the home mark it was a ru with spinnakers to port. The yachts were timed a the end of the first round as follows:

The wind fell lighter on the second round, and it shifted for a time to the southeast. The Neola II, the Cara Mia and the Minx got into the doldrums on the Long Island shore, and were hopelessly out of it. The Maid of Meudon was so far astern that she did not finish.

TWO YACHTS CAPSIZE.

Thrilling Rescues During Sea Cliff, Regatta Yesterday. The eight yachts that competed in the Sea Cliff regatta yesterday for the cup offered by Mrs. Rupert Ryley, had a lively fight against the elements, as well as their competitors in the two hours they battled for places over the sixteen difficulty. The rigging of Dunning's boat was carried away when she gybed around one of the marks, and he was thrown overboard. He became entangled in the boat's gear and the sail, and was nearly exhausted trying to extricate himself, when Samuel Stump came to his rescue with his boat and dragged Dunning on board.

Gillam's boat also capsized while gybing, but he was thrown clear of her and managed to keep affoat until rescued. The other six boats were able to complete the course without accident. The winner was Harry North's boat. The summary follows: mary follows: SEA CLIFF YACHT CLUB, 18 FOOT, ONE DESIGN CLASS-START, 4 P. M. COURSE, SIXTEEN
